

LGE - LOGISTICS ENGINEERING (LGE)

LGE 4003 National Transport and Planning Law (3-1-3)

Examines the basics of national and international transport and insurance law. Analyses the evaluation and negotiation of logistics contracts. Introduces transportation legislation, contract law, contract of sale, dispatch, incomers. Discusses obligations and rights of the sender and obligations and rights of the carrier. In the air transport rules, the students are introduced to the Warsaw- and the Montreal conventions.

LGE 4803 Special Topics in Logistics Engineering (2-2-3)

Presents a theoretical or practical topic proposed by the faculty beyond what is offered in existing courses. Can be repeated for credit.