

HUMAN RESOURCE MANAGEMENT

Admission to Program

Admission to the program is explained in the HCT Admission Policy described in the Academic Policies section of this Catalog.

Program Mission

The Bachelor of Human Resource Management program seeks to produce graduates able to function effectively in managerial and practitioner roles in the specialized field of Human Resource Management. Graduates will have the skills, values and ability to explain, analyze and evaluate complex Human Resource Management processes in local and global contexts, while demonstrating the ability to work independently, or in teams, to think critically, solve problems, make recommendations for improvements, and use advanced Human Resource Management tools.

Program Description

The Bachelor of Human Resource Management program provides students with the knowledge and skills needed to work as competent HRM professionals. Successful completion of the program will enable graduates to work in a variety of public and private sector organizations. The program places emphasis on structured techniques and best practices for managing talent and human capital, with a variety of analytic frameworks presented.

The program offers two distinct concentrations:

HRM-Strategy concentration and Talent Management concentration

For the HRM-Strategy concentration, students take HRM 4043, HRM 4053, HRM 4133, HRM 4143 and HRM 4153 elective courses.

For the Talent Management concentration, students take – HRM 4023, HRM 4033, HRM 4113, HRM 4123 and HRM 4133 elective courses.

Upon the successful completion of 117 credits, students may commence their Research Project (HRM 4203).

Students will have the option to graduate with a Higher Diploma in Human Resource Management upon the successful completion of 102 credits inclusive of the two internship courses.
